Morning and Evening Star.

Men, women and children will enjoy the Morning and Evening Star drinks. For their pleasant flavor and soothing effect generally, the ladies, whose delicate systems require a beverage that will act gently and be entirely safe under all conditions, are enthusiastic in their praise of Morning and Evening Star, and the men prefer them to all other drinks because they are more beneficial in their effects. They do not interfere with business or pleasure and are entirely free from all injurious or disagreeable substances. When the blood is impure or the stomach weak, the Evening Star can be drank to advantage, and invalids will find relief from it. In the production of these drinks the Hawaiian Islands have been enriched with the only perfect gentle beverages known. The price per dozen is 50c., delivered to all parts of the city free.
